A 1926 Hyde Park Craftsman with a deep front porch, original oak floors and a detached garage with a workshop.

A 1926 Craftsman on one of Hyde Park's quietest avenues, with a deep front porch made for long evenings and a pecan tree shading the yard. Inside, the original oak floors, built-in bookcases and a brick fireplace sit beside an updated kitchen that opens to the back deck. Three bedrooms and two baths, a detached garage with a workshop, and a 10-minute walk to Shipe Park and the shops on Duval Street. The University of Texas is a short bike ride away.
